

P. Jason Ward

Senior Client Partner

P. Jason Ward is a Senior Client Partner in Korn/Ferry International's Stamford office and a member of the Global Industrial Market.

With more than a decade of industrial and international business experience, Mr. Ward focuses on assignments across industrial and transportation market segments, including heavy manufacturing, processes and converting operations, electronics, construction, intermodal logistics, import/export, and supply chain operations.

Mr. Ward recruits executives within all functions, including, CEOs, presidents, and senior-level positions in operations, marketing, sales, finance, regulatory compliance and human resources, within both the domestic and international markets.

Mr. Ward also recruits for our clients at the Board of Directors level.

Prior to joining Korn/Ferry in 1999, Mr. Ward was the U.S. commercial manager for a prominent European-based owner of a fleet of 20 modern double hull super tankers.

Mr. Ward's previous international business experience includes operations management for a privately held American/Brazilian import/export shipping joint venture and sales and marketing management in the commercial electronic communications and navigation equipment sector.

Mr. Ward earned his master's degree in business administration from the University of Connecticut. Prior to this, he served as a commissioned engineering officer in the U.S. Navy aboard a guided missile cruiser deployed to the Arabian Gulf, following the award of his undergraduate degree from the United States Merchant Marine Academy.
