

Edward J. Mullen

Senior Client Partner

Ed Mullen is a Senior Client Partner in Korn/Ferry International's Los Angeles office, specializing in executive search for senior leadership positions.

With over three decades of experience in the healthcare industry, Mr. Mullen has served as the National Practice Leader for the North American Healthcare Services Practice for Korn/Ferry. He is also very active in the Firm's National Nonprofit Practice and Global Financial Market.

Prior to joining Korn/Ferry in 1996, Mr. Mullen served as president and CEO of, the managed care division of UniHealth, a large health system in California. In this capacity, Mr. Mullen served on the senior leadership team of the $2 billion parent company and directed managed care strategy for ten acute care hospitals and medical groups.

Mr. Mullen has held CEO roles at hospitals with companies such as Hospital Corporation of America and senior positions with leading management consulting firms such as Ernst & Young.

He has been active on many national and community boards, including the National Association of Private Psychiatric Hospitals, California Hospital Medical Center, CliniShare, the Alliance for Children's Rights (past president) and Health Insights (past chairman).

Mr. Mullen has a master's degree in public health from Yale University and a bachelor's degree in psychology from St. Louis University.