

Korn Ferry Listen powered by SAP® Qualtrics®

Empowering organizations to exceed their potential by listening to and improving the employee experience.

Our research shows that the global engagement market landscape is shifting, with companies looking for comprehensive and agile solutions to meet the “always-on” demands of today’s business environment.

Our solution

We help organizations navigate this challenge by offering the award-winning SAP® Qualtrics® employee experience management platform alongside Korn Ferry’s expert implementation and engagement advisory teams.

Whether you need to refresh your annual census survey or get support thinking through a completely new employee listening strategy, Korn Ferry experts help you harness the power of SAP Qualtrics technology in the most impactful way for your organization.

Depending on your use case, you can access everything from robust research-based “out of the box” self-service surveys through to fully managed services where we implement the listening program on your behalf.

Collectively, this combination of deep consulting and technology capability will help you find the right way in your organization to better understand employee perceptions and help optimize performance.

Enabling you

Powered by SAP Qualtrics, Korn Ferry Listen enables you to:

Use proven Korn Ferry surveys to ask the questions we know drive engagement and performance.

Benefit from expert advice on the right questions to ask for your strategy i.e., what are the must-ask questions to measure a customer-centric culture?

Have access to a full range of “continuous listening” content for life-cycle surveys to understand what drives employee experience in key moments that matter.

Benefits

- Confidence you are working with the best: You benefit from Korn Ferry’s category-leading expertise in measuring and driving employee experience, plus the award-winning power, flexibility and user experience of the SAP Qualtrics platform.
- Flexible support you can scale up: Korn Ferry has the widest coverage for advisory and implementation support, with resource you can scale up whenever you need extra support. All this alongside expert technical support from SAP Qualtrics.
- Industry-leading R&D: With over 500 engineers, SAP Qualtrics has the strongest R&D firepower in the employee experience industry. With the regular addition of new features and functions, the user experience is continually being enriched.
- Insight and consulting to drive business impact: Technology no matter how good, doesn’t drive improvement alone. Korn Ferry’s engagement and organizational consulting will help you create the employee experience needed to deliver on your strategy.

Access award-winning SAP Qualtrics technology to deploy flexible surveys with an engaging user experience, userfriendly manager dashboards and statistics and text tools for specialist users.

Access one of the world's largest employee-opinion databases. Our benchmarks comprise data collected from over 21 million employees surveyed worldwide. These allow for comparisons by country/region, industry, union/nonunion populations, and other employee demographics.

Flexible implementation support

Select a flexible level of support depending on your organization's maturity and in-house resources.

How we can help
